AFCA COACHES' POLL/FCS STATS

Stadium: Fifth Third Bank Stadium

A&T: The Aggies had a close call on Saturday as North Alabama overcame a 24-7 halftime deficit to take a 34-31 in the lead in the fourth quarter before a game-winning touchdown reception by Bhayshul Tuten earned the Aggies the win. The Aggies have now won seven straight at home. The Aggies offense has gone over 400 yards of offense in the last three games.

A&T Coach Sam Washington: (MVSU '82). Washington is 22-7 (.759) as the Aggies head coach in his third season on the field and fourth overall. In his rookie season as a head coach, Washington was named the 2018 MEAC Coach of the Year after leading the Aggies to a MEAC title and a Celebration Bowl victory. In year two, the Aggies won the MEAC again under Washington and took home the Celebration Bowl. In addition, he has two HBCU national titles. Washington had the best two-year start of any football coach in A&T history.

Kennesaw State: The Owls have proven to be one of the best teams in Division I-FCS. They are coming off a dominant 34-15 win at Hampton. The Owls only loss this season was to FBS foe Georgia Tech. Against FCS opponents, they are averaging 32.8 points per game. They are also averaging 288.4 rushing yards per game.

KSU head coach Brian Bohannon: Bohannon has built an impressive program in seven seasons at KSU. He is 58-18 (.763) during his stint there, and he led the Owls to three straight playoff appearances from 2017-19. In 2018, he was the runner-up for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A&T's STOP THE RUN MANTRA WILL BE TESTED THIS WEEK

- ▶ North Carolina A&T has the No. 1 rush defense in the Big South Conference. In fact, the Aggies have had the No. 1 rush defense in their conference in eight of the previous nine seasons.
- ▶ When A&T says we do chicken. They are making a comparison to the fact KFC doesn't do anything else, but chicken. They haven't changed their identity for decades and the Aggies are not interested in changing theirs.
- ▶ A&T's chicken is stop the run, win the kicking game and protect the football.
- ▶ The first part of that will be challenged this week as the Aggies travel to Georgia to play nationally-ranked Kennesaw State.
- ▶ The Owls have the second-best rushing offense in the nation, averaging 288.4 yards per game. They had the No. 1 rushing offense in the nation in 2019 by averaging 342.4 yards per game. In 2018, they averaged 352.9 rushing yards per game.
- ▶ On the opposite side, the Aggies have given up an average of 95.6 rushing yards per game over the past 10 seasons. In three of those seasons, they have given up less than 1,000 rushing yards on the year.
- ▶ The Aggies are coming off a wacky 38-34 win over North Alabama, and will have perhaps their biggest challenge of the season when it comes to facing an FCS opponent.
- ▶ Kennesaw State has had remarkable success in a short period of time. KSU started exploring playing football on the FCS level in 2009. The Owls first season of competition happened in 2015 as they went 6-5.
- ▶ The Owls have played in the Big South Conference since 2015. The Owls have never had a losing season, they won the Big South in 2017 and '18, and they went to the playoffs three straight seasons from 2017-19. They made the quarterfinals in 2017.
- ▶ Both teams started the season nationally-ranked. A&T has finished nationally-ranked four straight seasons. Meanwhile, KSU has finished nationally-ranked three straight seasons from 2017-19.
- ▶ A&T has had a pretty good running game of its own over the past few seasons. But the Aggies passing game has also been effective this season. In his last two games, Aggies QB Jalen Fowler is 30-for-51 for 465 yards, five touchdowns and one interception.

WASHINGTON MONUMENTS

FIRST TWO SEASONS

No N.C. A&T coach in school history has had a better first two seasons than Sam Washington. In his first two seasons on the sidelines, Washington has won 19 games with two MEAC titles, two Celebration Bowl wins and two HBCU national titles. He has more wins over his first two seasons than any other Aggies coach in school history. Hornsby Howell won 14 games in his first two seasons and Rod Broadway won 12 games in his first two.

THERE ARE ONLY THREE

Sam Washington is only one of three active coaches with multiple HBCU national titles. Washington has led the Aggies to back-to-back HBCU titles in 2018 and 2019. Two other active coaches with multiple HBCU titles are S.C. State's Buddy Pough (3) and Connell Maynor (3). Maynor is a N.C. A&T graduate who won two HBCU titles at Winston-Salem State and one at Alabama A&M.

10-WIN SEASONS

Sam Washington won 10 games in his first season on his way to winning MEAC coach of the year honors in 2018. Washington is only one of two coaches in A&T history with 10 wins in his first season on the job. George Small won 10 games his rookie season in 2003. In both cases, each man won the MEAC title and led their respective teams to postseason appearances. Small's team lost in the first round of playoffs, and Washington led the Aggies to a Celebration Bowl victory.

WASHINGTON IN THE POLLS

The Aggies have been nationally-ranked since he took over the job in 2018. Washington has been with the program since 2011. The Aggies have finished nationally-ranked five times in that span. The Aggies have also been the No. 1 HBCU football team in the nation for most of Washington's tenure. There have only been four weeks where the Aggies have not been the No. 1 team in black college football in the country.

PLAYERS IN THE NFL

The Aggies have produced some outstanding NFL talent on Washington's watch. In 2018, defensive end Darryl Johnson, Jr. was a seventh-round draft pick of the Buffalo Bills. THE NEXT GENERATION AT RUNNING BACK U.

- ▶ North Carolina A&T has two outstanding senior running backs in Jah-Maine Martin and Kashon Baker.
- ▶ Martin is coming off an historic season in which he posted 1,446 rushing yards and 23 touchdowns.
- ▶ He is one of the premiere backs in FCS football and he has many NFL scouts intrigued.
- ▶ Baker had an excellent season as Martin's backup in 2019. He rushed 439 yards and five touchdowns on 83 carries. He averaged 5.3 yards per carry.
- ▶ But after the 2021 season, both runners will be gone leaving the Aggies with huge holes to fill.
- ▶ The future apparently seems to be two freshmen running backs in Bhaysul Tuten and Frederick Graves.
- ▶ Graves was a star at George Washington High School in Danville, Va. He was ranked the 31st ranked player in the state after leading GW to a 6-2 mark.
- ▶ Tuten has already won Big South Conference freshman of the week honors after rushing for 54 yards on seven carries at Duke. He also scored the game-winning touchdown against North Alabama with a 60-yard TD reception from Fowler.

EDUCATED NCAT AGGIES

- ▶ North Carolina A&T has 12 players on the current roster who have undergraduate degrees from N.C. A&T.
- ▶ Four of those players still have two years of eligibility remaining. Quarterback Jalen Fowler is a junior on the field, but he already has a degree in graphic communication systems.
- ▶ Middle linebacker Kyin Howard has his degree in applied engineering technology. Linebacker Chris Williams is listed as a sophomore on the field. He already has his degree in industrial & system engineering.
- ▶ Backup quarterback Kingsley Ifedi is a junior on the field with a degree in management.
- ▶ The other players on the roster this season who have undergraduate degrees from N.C. A&T are running back Kashon Baker, wide receiver and returner Korey Banks, long snapper John Davis, rover Stephen Davis, Jr., rover Richie Kittles, wide receiver Zach Leslie, free safety Najee Reams and kicker Davis Rogers.

AT LAST...

- ▶ Jalen Fowler came into camp this season as QB1.
 - ▶ Fowler will finally get his chance to start this season at quarterback after waiting patiently behind two other quarterbacks before getting his turn.
 - ▶ Fowler arrived in Greensboro in 2017 when Lamar Raynard was the reigning starting QB in AggieLand. Fowler watched as Raynard broke single-season school records and led A&T to an undefeated season at 12-0.
 - ▶ Raynard returned as QB1 in 2018, and led the Aggies to another MEAC title, Celebration Bowl win and HBCU national championship in a 10-2 season.
 - ▶ Raynard's trustworthy backup through all those years was Kyllil Carter. In 2019, Carter finally got his chance to start after he served as the backup for many years. Fowler entered that season as the Aggies No. 2 QB.
 - ▶ Carter responded by leading the Aggies to the MEAC title, a Celebration Bowl win and the HBCU national title. In the Celebration Bowl win, Carter compiled a school record 460 yards of total offense in the 64-44 win.
 - ▶ Now it is Fowler's turn. Fowler has not been a starting quarterback since he left Dorman High School five years ago.
 - ▶ Fowler leads the Big South in passing efficiency (160.0) and yards per pass attempt (9.05). He is second in total offense (256.5).
 - ▶ Nationally, he is fifth in yards per attempt, eighth in passing efficiency and ninth in passing yards per attempt.
- ## WE PLAY OFFENSE TOO
- ▶ North Carolina A&T is known for its tenacious defense. But the Aggies haven't been too bad offensively either.
 - ▶ In 2019, the Aggies led the MEAC in first down offense, red zone offense, rushing offense, scoring offense and total offense.
 - ▶ The Aggies offense has been on fire over the last three games of the 2021 season. The Aggies are averaging 438.7 yards over the last three games.
 - ▶ They lead the conference in red zone offense and they are 28th in the nation in the same category. The Aggies are 25th in the nation in rushing offense and 34th in the country in scoring offense. They are averaging 38.7 points in the last three.

THE TRUTH ABOUT KSU

- ▶ Kennesaw State is a newcomer to football, but they have become very good at quickly.
- ▶ The university started exploring the idea of playing football in 2009. They decided to become a Division I-FCS school in 2015.
- ▶ They went 6-5 in their first season and have never had a losing season since they started playing football.
- ▶ The Owls have already made three playoff appearances, including reaching the quarterfinals in 2017. They already have two Big South titles.
- ▶ The Owls have been dominant again this season. They blew out nationally-ranked Jacksonville State. Yes, the same JSU that defeated Florida State this season.
- ▶ They have also blown out Hampton and Wofford with their only loss this season coming to the ACC's Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets.
- ▶ Quarterback Xavier Shepherd leads the way. He leads the team in rushing (87.6 yards per game) and passing with 399 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. He has also completed 60 percent of his passes.

CLOSING OUT UNA

- ▶ Last Saturday marked just the third time in the Aggies last 21 home wins, a team has come within single digits of the Aggies. The Aggies have won their last 21 home games by 29.0 points.
- ▶ The Aggies completed their three-game homestand undefeated. In the process, the Aggies won their seventh straight at home. A&T is 43-6 at home over the past 10 seasons.
- ▶ Jah-Maine Martin, Kashon Baker and Bhaysul Tuten combined to rush for 186 yards and two touchdowns on 31 carries in the win over UNA Saturday.
- ▶ Martin and Baker have 100-yard performances this season. If Tuten has a 100-yard game this season, it will mark the first time since the 1994 season that the Aggies have had three different runners have a 100-yard game within a season. James White, Barry Turner and Brian Rodman were the last trio to do it.
- ▶ A&T coach Sam Washington improved to 14-3 against conference opponents. Twelve of those wins came against MEAC opponents.

SAM WASHINGTON

HEAD COACH
4TH SEASON
MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE '82

NORTH CAROLINA
AGRICULTURAL AND TECHNICAL STATE UNIVERSITY

Sam Washington became the 19th head football coach in North Carolina A&T State history on January 9, 2018. Washington also serves as the Aggies co-defensive coordinator.

In 2019, Washington led A&T to the program's 11th overall Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championship. In only his second season, Washington also won his second black college football national title with a 64-44 win over Alcorn State in the annual Celebration Bowl.

Washington has more wins in his first two seasons (19) than any other head coach in A&T history. In two seasons, Washington has already had 11 first-team All-MEAC selections from 10 different players. In 2018, Darry Johnson, Jr. earned MEAC defensive player of the year before being drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the seventh round.

The Aggies have also had two different players earn MEAC offensive lineman of the year under Washington, and running back Jah-Maine Martin earned multiple All-American honors in 2019.

In his first season as the Aggies head coach, Washington led N.C. A&T to the MEAC championship. Also, in his first season, Washington led the Aggies to their second straight Celebration Bowl victory and the third in four years. The Aggies were also named black college football national champions, finishing 10-2.

For his efforts, Washington became the second N.C. A&T rookie coach to capture MEAC coach of the year as he tied the school record for wins by a first-year coach.

Before being promoted to head coach, Washington served as the Aggies defensive coordinator and secondary coach for seven years under legendary head coach Rod Broadway. In 2015, Broadway promoted Washington to associate head coach. He has established himself as one of the best defensive minds in Division I-FCS.

Under Washington, the Aggies have finished out the top-20 in total defense only once nationally. In two of those seasons, they were second nationally in total defense. In addition, the run defense has finished outside the top-10 nationally only once, including leading the nation in run defense in 2013.

In three of Washington's eight seasons, the Aggies have finished among the top-10 teams in passing defense efficiency, including No. 1 in 2012. The Aggies have been the MEAC's No. 1 total defense and scoring defense five times in the past eight years. They have had the No. 1 total defense in the conference four straight seasons.

N.C. A&T has also had the No. 1 rush defense in the conference seven times in eight years.

In his role as the secondary coach, seven different cornerbacks have earned All-MEAC success in D'Vonte Graham, Justin Ferrell, Tony McRae, Donald Mattocks, Marquis Boyan, Timadre Abram and Frank "Mac" McCain III, with only Boyan not earning first-team honors. Graham, McRae, Mattocks and McCain have all earned All-American honors from various organizations. Two of Washington's corners – McRae and Ayodeji Olatoye – spent multiple seasons on NFL rosters.

Olatoye made the Dallas Cowboys 53-man roster in 2015 and playing the Super Bowl in 2017. McRae has played the past two seasons for the Cincinnati Bengals and started a game in 2018.

N.C. A&T HEAD FOOTBALL COACH SAM WASHINGTON

Before arriving at A&T, Washington spent four seasons as Grambling's defensive backs coach under Broadway. Washington played a significant role in the Tigers' dominating defense in 2007.

Nationally, the Tigers ranked 12th in total defense. The following season, Grambling led the nation in turnover margin and was third in scoring defense.

Defensive back Desmond Lenard was ninth in the country in interceptions per game. Three other defensive backs ranked among the Top-50 in interceptions per game that season. Before Washington came to Grambling, he spent five years at his alma mater Mississippi Valley State. Washington served as an assistant head coach and defensive coordinator and his traditional role as the defensive backs coach.

In his first season at MVSU, he transformed the Delta Devils defense from one of the worst defenses in the SWAC into the league's No. 2 ranked defense.

Before returning to MVSU, Washington spent one season (2001) as N.C. A&T's special teams coordinator under head coach Bill Hayes. Under Washington, the Aggies had one of the best special teams seasons in school history. The Aggies led the nation in punt return yardage per game, with punt returner Curtis Deloatch breaking the NCAA's single-season record for punt return touchdowns. Punter Yonnick

Matthews was second in the MEAC in punting.

Washington also spent eight seasons at N.C. Central as the school's assistant head coach and defensive coordinator. Led by All-American Buddy Crutchfield, Adrian Jones and Trei Oliver in 1996, Washington put together one of the best Division II defensive backfields.

The Eagles went 8-3 with the best pass defense in the CIAA. In 1992, he began work at Johnson C. Smith. He was named the assistant head coach. His other duties included being the defensive and special teams coordinator, the defensive backs coach and the head track and field coach.

Washington's coaching profession also includes a stint with Bethune-Cookman (1987-92), where he helped the Wildcats take a share of the 1988 MEAC championship. In 1998, he secured an internship with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers under legendary head coach Tony Dungy.

Washington spent four seasons in the NFL with stops in Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. As a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Washington intercepted at least one pass in five consecutive games during the 1984 season. Before making it to the NFL, Washington played cornerback for Mississippi Valley State, where he battled daily in practice with a wide receiver named Jerry Rice.

Washington earned a B.S. degree in physical education from MVSU in 1982. He was inducted into the MVSU Hall of Fame in 2006. He and his wife Donna have one son, Jarvis.
