Towson University Head Coach Pat Skerry

12th Season as Head Coach

When Pat Skerry was announced as the 13th men's basketball head coach at Towson University on April 5, 2011, he took over a program that had endured 15-straight losing seasons.

The gritty Medford, Massachusetts native has revitalized the Towson men's basketball program, leading the Tigers to consistent success in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). In addition, under Skerry's leadership, Towson has the highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the CAA.

Towson enters the 2022-23 season having won at least 18 games in seven seasons in the last 10 years.

The 2021-22 season saw the Tigers capture their first CAA Regular Season title and a berth in the National Invitational Tournament after a 25-8, 15-3 CAA season.

The Tigers have participated in two postseason tournaments since the 2013-14 campaign. In 2015-16 and 2016-17, Towson finished with at least 20 wins, the second time in school history that Towson has won 20 games in consecutive seasons. Towson's 25-win year in the 2013-14 campaign was the highest amount of victories in a season in Division I and most since 1977-78.

The Tigers enjoyed a strong 2019-20 campaign that resulted in 19 victories and a third-place finish in the CAA for the third time in five years. The Tigers won a program record seven CAA road games and had a seven-game winning streak during the month of January.

Brian Fobbs and Allen Betrand finished in the top-11 in the CAA in scoring and earned All-CAA Second Team and Third Team respectively while Nicolas Timberlake was the CAA Sixth Man of the Year. In addition, Dennis Tunstall made the CAA All-Defensive Team plus Jason Gibson was on the CAA All-Rookie Team.

Skerry has used his platform as a head coach and teamed up with Tom Herrion to start Autism Awareness in college basketball. What started as two guys with an idea has turned into a national event where hundreds of coaches wear the prominent blue puzzle piece pin. The effort put forth by both Skerry and Herrion were recognized as the duo was honored with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Guardians of the Game Service Award.

Skerry took over at Towson after spending one season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh. In his lone season, he helped the Panthers capture the BIG EAST regular season championship with a 28-6 record. During his tenure at Pitt, he once again helped refill the talent pool for the Panthers as they added one of the Top 15 recruiting classes in the country according to ESPN.com, including two of the Top 60 incoming players. He has also been a head coach at Curry as well as an assistant coach at Providence, Rhode Island, Charleston, William & Mary, Northeastern, Stonehill and Tufts.

Skerry earned both of his collegiate degrees from Tufts, earning his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his Master's Degree in education in 1995. Pat and his wife, Kristen, have two sons, Ryan and Owen.

HOLDEN SCORES HIS 1,000TH CAREER POINT;
MEN'S BASKETBALL DEFEATS HOFSTRA 68-47
ON MONDAY

TOWSON, Md. – Towson men's basketball won their second straight game with a 68-47 win against Hofstra on Monday afternoon. The Tigers held the Pride to 4-27 from three in the win.

Nicolas Timberlake led the Tigers with a game-high 17 points with 15 coming in the second half. Cam Holden also hit double figures with 13 points, scoring his 1,000th career point in the win.

Hofstra pushed out to a 7-1 lead after Sekou Sylla split a pair of free throws to open the game.

The Tigers would find their rhythm, ripping off an 19-2 run over a seven-minute span to take a seven-point lead after being down as many as 10.

Towson would keep up the defensive pressure. Nicolas Timberlake would get a steal that led to a Christian May and one on the other end as the Tigers extended their lead to nine late in the half.

Nygal Russell would push the lead to ten at the half after a strong take and finish to make it 30-20 Tigers at the break.

Both teams went back and forth trading baskets to start the half.

Towson went on a quick 6-0 run to push the lead to 16 after a Timberlake three and Charles Thompson dunk.

Timberlake would go on a 5-0 run of his own to extend the lead out to 24, their largest of the day.

With 6:27 to go in the game, Cam Holden hit a turnaround hook shot to record his 1,000th career point.

The Tigers would continue to keep their lead around 20 points, finishing with a 68-47 win on Monday night.

Timberlake led all scorers with 17 points adding five rebounds.

Holden finished with 13 points and seven rebounds on 5-9 shooting.

Towson shot 45 percent from the floor and scored just under half of their points in the paint.

Nicolas Timberlake remains in 17th place on the all-time scoring list and is now just 18 points shy of passing Gary Neal for 16th all-time.

Nygal Russell recorded 12 rebounds, his first double-digit rebounding performance as a Tiger. The mark was just one shy of his career-high of 13 set against Austin Peay last season.

Towson won their 87th game inside SECU Arena. The Tigers now hold an 87-40 mark.

Malik Missouri scored his first collegiate points, hitting a layup at the end of the game.
