Team Information

A&T: The Aggies won their sixth straight game with a resilient 30-20 win over S.C. State. It was the Aggies closest conference contest of the season. The Aggies are two wins away from having back-to-back double-figure win seasons for the first time in school history.

A&T Coach Rod Broadway: Broadway is in his sixth season at A&T and holds a 46-20 (.697) record. Broadway also spent four seasons apiece at NCCU and Grambling, and has an overall record of 114-43 (.726). He has won a black college national title at each of those schools.

DSU: The Hornets finished above .500 at 6-5 in 2012. The Hornets are 8-35 since that time including losing 24 out of their last 25 games. They surrender 40.7 points per game and 472.8 yards per game. Brycen Alleyne and Mike Waters are fifth and sixth in the MEAD in rushing.

DSU coach Kenny Carter: Carter is in his second season at Delaware State. Carter is in the midst of a rebuilding effort at Delaware State. In his first head coaching job, Carter is 1-19 thus far. Carter has spent time at Youngstown State and the University of Louisville.

A&T WILL ATTEMPT TO WIN MEAC TITLE AWAY FROM HOME

▶ If the Aggies want to win their ninth MEAC title, they must do it away from the comforts of Aggie Stadium.

▶ N.C. A&T completed their home schedule last week with a 30-20 win over S.C. State to finish 5-0 at Aggie Stadium. It marked the eighth time since Aggie Stadium opened in 1981 that the Aggies went undefeated at home. It is first time since 2003 since the Aggies finished undefeated at home.

▶ Now the Aggies must win on the road in order to win the MEAC title starting with a game at Delaware State and finishing up at North Carolina Central.

▶ N.C. A&T has actually been effective on the road lately. The Aggies have won their last six road games in MEAC play. In their last 10 road games, the Aggies are 9-1 with the only loss coming to NCCU in 2014.

▶ The Aggies are 12-9 on road in the MEAC under head coach Rod Broadway. That does not include N.C. A&T's two losses to S.C. State in Atlanta during the Broadway era.

▶ Tarik Cohen will play against Delaware State for the last time in his career. Last week Cohen scored his first-ever touchdown against S.C. State, but the Bulldogs will remain to be the only MEAC team Cohen failed to rush for 100 yards against.

▶ Now Cohen will try to score his first-ever TD against Delaware State. If he is able to score against the Hornets he will have scored a TD against every MEAC team. Cohen is averaging 122.3 yards in three games played against the Hornets including 5.1 yards per carry.

▶ Cohen fumbled at the 1-yard line in the fourth quarter at North Carolina Central on Nov. 22, 2014 in a play that would have tied the game in a 21-14 A&T loss. Cohen hasn't fumbled since. He has now had 482 straight touches without losing a fumble.

▶ N.C. A&T is after the school's second undefeated season in the MEAC since joining the conference in 1971. The only other time the Aggies finished undefeated in the MEAC was in 1999. The Aggies had four undefeated seasons in the CIAA — 1950, 1958, 1959 and 1964. The Aggies are 18-2 in their last 20 conference games.

N.C. A&T BY THE NUMBERS

1 — Only once has a N.C. A&T defense under Rod Broadway failed to finish in the top-10 defensively in the nation. The Aggies have never finished lower than 16th and have been among the top-2 three times.

1 — It is the number of Aggies who have ever rushed for 200-plus yards in three consecutive games. The Aggies' name is Tarik Cohen, and he did it over the previous three contests.

3 — The Aggies have only lost at Aggie Stadium three times in 24 conference games played under head coach Rod Broadway.

5 — The Aggies have secured their fifth straight winning season. The last time they had a streak this long was from 1995-01. The school record is 10 straight (1955-64).

7 — In six seasons

under Broadway, the Aggies have shutout an opponent seven times including twice this season.

11 — Punt returner Khris Gardin has returned 11 punts, 40 yards or more in his career.

15 — It is the number of consecutive weeks the Aggies have been ranked nationally in the FCS STATS media and NCAA FCS coaches' poll. The last time the Aggies were not ranked was Oct. 23, 2015.

27 — Tarik Cohen has 27 100-yard games in his career, which is a school record. He has a school-record seven 200-yard games.

37 — The Aggies have held 37 opponents to under 100 yards rushing since 2011.

41-1 — Broadway is 41-1 at N.C. A&T when he leads at halftime. Under Broadway the Aggies are 39-2 when leading after three quarters. N.C. A&T's only loss when leading at halftime under Broadway came in 2011 to Norfolk State.

65 — In 65 games coached at N.C. A&T, only seven players have rushed for 100 yards or more against a Rod Broadway defense.

70— Eleven of Cohen's 50 career TD's have gone for 70 yards or more.

482 — Tarik Cohen has had 482 consecutive touches without losing a fumble. He has a streak of 21 straight games without losing a fumble.

507 — Tarik Cohen needs 507 yards to break the MEAC's single-season rushing record. He needs 329 yards to break the Aggies single-season rushing record that he already owns.

RUN DOWN OF N.C. A&T vs. SCSU

- Tarik Cohen will end his career without ever having a 100-yard game against S.C. State. But Cohen did score his first career TD against the Bulldogs, and he had 95 all-purpose yards on 22 touches.
- There were some streaks broken in Saturday's game versus S.C. State. Cohen saw his streak of five straight 100-yard rushing games come to an end with 47 yards on 16 carries.
- S.C. State rushed for 141 yards against the Aggies. They became the first MEAC team in five games to rush for 100 yards against the Aggies defense. They are just the third MEAC opponent in the last 15 games to rush for 100 yards against N.C. A&T.
- Aggies placekicker Cody Jones missed an extra point against S.C. State. It broke a streak of 39 straight extra points made by the senior from Gastonia, N.C.
- N.C. A&T has now won two straight games over the Bulldogs. It marks the first time since the 1999 and 2000 seasons since the Aggies have won consecutive games against SCSU. The Aggies haven't won three in a row against SCSU since they won three straight from 1998-2000.
- N.C. A&T quarterback Lamar Raynard completed 18 more passes on Saturday. He is 35 completions shy of breaking Alan Hooker's single-season completions record, which stands at 169. Hooker set the mark in 1985.
- N.C. A&T had not scored 30 or more points against S.C. State since scoring 66 points against the Bulldogs on Nov. 18, 2000.

TRENDS

- N.C. A&T had rushed for more than 100 yards in a game in 16 straight contest. That included five straight games of 200 yards or more. S.C. State broke both streaks on Nov. 5 by holding the Aggies to 63 yards rushing.
- Receiver Denzel Keyes has caught at least one pass in 20 straight games. He has caught at least one pass in 32 of his last 33 games.
- The Aggies are 34-3 since 2011 when they hold opponents to under 100 yards rushing. The Aggies are 24-4 when they hold opponents under 300 yards of offense including on Saturday versus Florida A&M.
- N.C. A&T has secured a sack in 19 straight games. The only game the Aggies did not have a sack in their last 31 games was

TRENDS CONTINUED

- against the University of North Carolina on Sept. 12, 2015.
- The Aggies are ranked No. 4 in the nation in total sacks and lead the conference. They are doing this despite the fact that their leaders in sacks have four apiece in Angelo Keyes and Kenneth Melton.
- N.C. A&T has scored at least one touchdown in their last 27 games. The last time the Aggies have failed to score a TD was on Oct. 4, 2014 against S.C. State in Atlanta. The Aggies have at least two TD's in every game of the streak except one, a 9-6 win over S.C. State in 2015.
- The 2015 senior class won 33 games during their four years of eligibility. It is the most successful class since the 1999 class won 34 games from 1996-99. If the Aggies are able to win at least nine games this season, the 2016 senior class will outpace both with 35 wins.
- N.C. A&T is looking to lead the MEAC in total defense for the third time in six season.

BROADWAY'S BIGGEST WINS

- N.C. A&T coach Rod Broadway has been at the helm for some of the Aggies biggest wins in program history.
- vs. S.C. State, 11/10/12, Aggie Stadium: The Aggies came into the game having lost an embarrassing 11 straight to the Bulldogs. Thanks to a 10-yard fumble recovery return for TD by D'Vonte Graham, the Aggies came away with a 17-7 win and secured their first winning season in 9 years.
- at App State, 9/7/13, Boone, N.C.: At the time App State was an FCS power in transition to FBS play. The Aggies were just beginning to rebuild their program while starting an inexperienced sophomore QB named Kwashaun Quick. The Aggies upset the Mountaineers 24-21 becoming the first in-state team to win in Boone in 29 years.
- vs. Alcorn State, 12/19/15, Atlanta: In the inaugural Celebration Bowl the Aggies earned the opportunity to play on major network ABC and showed the nation how good their team and running back is. Cohen's 295 yards led the Aggies to a 41-34 win earning the school national noteriety.
- at Kent State, 9/10/16, Kent, Ohio: The Aggies earned their first win over an FBS institution by earning a four-overtime 39-36 win at Kent State. The Aggies used third-string quarterback Oluwafemi Bamiro to get it done against the Golden Flashes.

AGGIES vs. DELAWARE STATE

- Playing at Alumni Stadium has not been easy for N.C. A&T. The Aggies did win there in 2014, but prior to that season the Aggies had lost five straight in Dover, Del., including 7 out of the last 10.
 - Even in the Aggies 33-20 win at Alumni Stadium, the Aggies jumped out to a 30-0 lead only to see the Hornets rally.
 - In the last eight games played at Alumni Stadium against N.C. A&T, the Hornets are averaging 27.8 points.
 - This will be the 46th meeting between the Aggies and the Hornets. The series is tied at 22 and that's not the only thing that is close.
 - The Aggies have scored 933 points in the series while the Hornets have scored just 24 points fewer at 909. The Aggies winning percentage at home is 56.5 while the Hornets have won 55 percent of their home games against N.C. A&T. Despite the closeness in the series, only 11 games have been decided by six points or less.
 - The Aggies are looking for their third straight win over the Hornets. The last time the Aggies won three straight over Delaware State was from 2001-03
- QB BECOMES MORE ACCURATE
- Sophomore Lamar Raynard has completed 135 of his 209 passes this season. Raynard took all of the snaps in the game against Norfolk State, marking just the second time that has happened in his career. His 55-yard TD pass to Khris Gardin on Oct. 15 vs. B-CU was the longest of his career.
 - Raynard has completed 64.6 percent of his passes this season. Raynard leads the MEAC in completion percentage and is 14th in the nation. He is also first in the MEAC in passing efficiency and 26th nationally with a 140.8 passer rating with 14 touchdown passes and six interception.
 - Raynard already broke Connell Maynor's single-game passing percentage record (at least 15 attempts) by completing 19 of his 23 passes (.826) against St. Augustine's earlier this season. Maynor's record was 81.3 percent.
 - If he is able to complete more than 64.4 percent of his passes he will break the single-season percentage record compiled by Maynor in 1989.
 - Raynard is also tied for the conference in touchdown passes with 14.

THE AGGIES ALL-AMERICAN PUNT RETURNER

GARDIN'S 2015 ACCOLADES

PUNT RETURNER U

- North Carolina A&T produced two of the best punt returners in NCAA FCS history in Curtis DeLoatch and Khris Gardin. DeLoatch, a former NFL player, once held the single-season punt return record with 530 yards to go along with five touchdowns in 2001.
- DeLoatch held that record until 2006 when Tuff Morris of Montana set the new pace. Gardin reclaimed the record for the Aggies in 2015 with 740 yards with three touchdowns added on.
- DeLoatch still holds the single-season record for yards per punt return as he averaged 26.5 a return in 2001. Eight players from HBCU's rank among the top-15 all-time in single season punt return yards.

AGGIES IN THE PROS

- Two-time All-MEAC performer Tony McRae was signed as a free agent by the Oakland Raiders soon after the 2016 NFL Draft. After being released by the Raiders he was signed by the Cincinnati Bengals.

• McRae did well for the Bengals during the preseason before being released. He returned four kickoffs for 106 yards and held a 26.5 average per return. His yardage and average led the team in the preseason.

• McRae, who led the Aggies in tackles in 2015, also had eight tackles (six solo) from his cornerback position in the preseason.

• Former Aggies tight end and wide receiver Kevin Francis is a member of the Saskatchewan Roughriders after being selected by the Roughriders in the third round of the supplemental draft.

• Francis is playing linebacker for the Roughriders and has made 13 tackles and one forced fumble on the season thus far.

• Former Aggies receiver Wallace Miles, who holds a share of the school record for career receptions, is a member of the CFL's Toronto Argonauts. Miles signed with the Argonauts in June.

- He started his professional career with the Detroit Lions as a free agent in May of 2012. He was released in August and signed by the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in October of that year.
- A year later he was signed by the Ottawa Redblacks in the 2013 CFL Expansion Draft. Miles then signed with the Edmonton Eskimos February of 2015 before being released nine months later.
- On the season, Miles has 13 receptions for 127 yards (9.8) for the Argonauts.

N.C. A&T IN THE NATIONAL POLLS

- For the first time in more than a decade the N.C. A&T football team opened a season nationally ranked.
- STATS FCS Media Top-25 Poll and the NCAA FCS Coaches Poll each had N.C. A&T ranked No. 25 in their respective preseason polls.
- The last time the Aggies were preseason ranked was in 2004 following their 2003 MEAC championship season when Sports Network (now known as STATS FCS) and the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll (now conducted by the NCAA) both had the Aggies ranked 24th going into the season. A&T finished the season unranked.
- The Aggies moved up to No. 18 in both polls after their win over Hampton after dropping down to No. 21 and 22 (coaches' poll) after the loss to FBS Tulsa.
- The Aggies made their biggest leap after their win over Kent State in Week 2, moving up five spots in each poll, going to No. 18 in the media poll and No. 19 in the coaches'.
- The Aggies, Tennessee State and Grambling are the only three HBCU's nationally-ranked.
- The highest the Aggies were ranked last season was No. 13 in the media poll and No. 16 in the coaches' poll ahead of their 21-16 loss to NCCU on Nov. 21.
- A&T surpassed that last week when they reached No. 10 in the coaches' poll and 11th in the FCS STATS poll. They have been ranked nationally 15 straight weeks.
- A&T's highest ranking ever was in 1993 when they were fifth in the media poll.
- A&T ended last season ranked No.21 in both polls. It marked just the seventh time in history that they finished the season nationally ranked. A&T's highest season-ending finish came in 1999 at No. 10.

A&T IN THE BLACK COLLEGE POLLS

- A&T solidified their fourth black college national title by ending the year No. 1 in both the Boxtorow Black College Poll and the Sheridan Broadcasting Network Poll.
- The Aggies are still No. 1 in both polls. The Aggies have collected all 20 of the first-place votes in the Boxtorow poll five times this season. They picked up 11 of 13 first-place votes in the BTR's latest media poll.
- In the SBN poll, the Aggies were the unanimous No. 1 in the preseason. The Aggies received all 30 first-place votes in the preseason.
- The Aggies have received all 30 first-place votes in eight out of the nine weeks the poll has been issued this season.
- The Aggies have been No. 1 in all three black college polls throughout the 2016 season.
- The Aggies have been ranked in the Boxtorow poll 39 straight weeks and for 37 straight weeks in the SBN poll.

THE BLACK COLLEGE CHAMP

- The black college football national championship is a non-sanctioned/non-sponsored national championship won by the best historically black college football team(s) in the United States.
- The criticism of the championship is that no official governing body has taken ownership of the championship, keeping it essentially mythical and plus various polls include schools who play on different levels of competition.
- HBCUs have also successfully challenged majority white schools for football championships for years within the sponsored titles of the NCAA.
- The Pittsburgh Courier exclusively announced a black national champion starting in 1920. A more coordinated effort began under the Champion Aggregation of All Conferences.^[2]

- Those efforts fell apart as HBCUs eventually began to gravitate over to the NAIA because it offered numerous athletic competition options while also welcoming schools of varying demographic backgrounds as members. Eventually, most HBCUs became NCAA members.
- Over the years, various black media outlets have taking it upon themselves to claim a black national champion. By virtue of winning the Celebration Bowl, ESPN crowned the Aggies as black college national champions, while Boxtorow, a syndicated radio show, also named the Aggies the best in black college.
- In the modern era, the Sheridan Broadcasting Network (also known as American Urban Radio Network) has been largely the determining factor of who is considered HBCU's finest.
- Here is a look at the various organizations who have named N.C. A&T black college national champions.

THE AGGIES ON THE RADIO

- North Carolina A&T football can be heard on ESPN Triad Radio in 2016.
- Aggie fans can listen to all 11 regular-season games on WCOG 1320 AM/93.7 FM with Donal Ware providing play-by-play for Aggies football for the second straight season. He will be joined by analysts Al Swann and Billy Covington.
- Football season will also feature a coach's show featuring Aggies head coach Rod Broadway on WCOG 1320 AM/93.7 FM that will air Wednesday nights at 7 p.m.
- Ware is the host of the nationally syndicated show From the Press Box to Press Row and the founder of DWComcommunications, a multi-faceted firm whose services range from public relations, sports information and marketing and radio consultation.
- Swann enters his fifth season in the Aggies radio booth. Swann is a retired high school football coach who spent 35 years of his career at Carlmont High School (Calif). Swann won numerous league championships and three Central Coast Section championships. Six of his former players went on to play in the NFL. He also coached golf, gymnastics, basketball, tennis and soccer over his 40-year career.
- Covington is entering his 18th season in the Aggies football radio booth. Using the name "the Handsome One," Covington once hosted a sports radio show on WNAA 90.1 FM called the Aggies Sports Report. He has been associated with Aggie Athletics since 1989 when he served as N.C. A&T's ticket manager until 1997. He has worked for more than 25 years at Warnersville Community Center.

AGGIES SHOWOFF ON ESPN THIS SEASON

- North Carolina A&T's two straight MEAC titles, their Celebration Bowl victory in 2015 and their recent black college national championship earned them exposure.
- The Aggies played five straight games on one of the ESPN networks, including three straight Thursday night games on ESPNU vs. Hampton (9/29), vs. Norfolk State (10/6) and vs. B-CU (10/15).
- A&T has also had three games on ESPN3 (vs. Kent State, 9/10 and Tulsa, 9/17) with the B-CU game airing their live and on tape delay on ESPNU. The Aggies have been superb in those games with a 4-1 record.

- On Sept. 3, the Aggies pulled off one of the programs biggest upsets on ESPN3 as they played four overtimes to earn a 39-36 win over Kent State who plays on the Division I-FBS level.
- The Aggies only loss on the ESPN family of networks thus far this season was their 58-21 loss to Tulsa, another FBS school who almost upset nationally-ranked Houston.
- The Aggies then played three straight MEAC opponents on ESPNU where they averaged 39.3 points per game in three wins. Meanwhile the Aggies only gave up an average of 14.6 points.
- Tarik Cohen rushed for at least 200 yards in each of the games, and he broke the MEAC rushing record live on ESPNU on Oct. 6. Cohen also had the longest rush from scrimmage in school history with a 94-yard run against Hampton on Sept. 29.
- The Aggies will also receive a wild card game against archrival N.C. Central on Nov. 19. It will feature two teams who have shared the MEAC title over the past two seasons. The two are in contention again, so the game people have been asking to put on national television will finally get there.
- In addition to being on television, the Aggies will stream one more home games — against S.C. State on Nov. 5 (1 p.m.).

ELEVEN AGGIES MAKE MEAC PRESEASON TEAM

PRESEASON FIRST TEAM

- RB Tarik Cohen (5-6, 179, Bunn, N.C.) — Cohen was also the MEAC preseason offensive player of the year. He is seeking his third straight offensive player of the year award from the MEAC.
- RS Khris Gardin (5-7, 164, Morganton, N.C.) — He is on four major preseason All-America teams (STATS, Athlon Sports, NUC, Boxtorow) after breaking the single-season punt return yards record in 2015.
- DL Marquis Ragland (6-3, 277, R-SR) — Ragland is the key behind the Aggies outstanding run defense. He made 48 tackles in 2015 with 11 1/2 tackles for loss.
- OL Brandon Parker (6-7, 299, R-JR) — Parker was named the offensive lineman of the year in the MEAC after not surrendering a sack from his left tackle position. Parker also led the Aggies in pancake blocks with 27.

- DE Angelo Keyes (6-1, 270, R-SR) — Keyes is big playmaker from the defensive side with the ability to knock down passes. Keyes has knock down 15 passes in his career.
- PK Cody Jones (5-11, 141, SR) — Likely the best kicker in school history with a record 33 career made field goals and 119 career made extra points. He has made 73.3 percent of his career field goals.

PRESEASON SECOND TEAM

- WR Denzel Keyes (6-4, 215, SR) — Led the Aggies in touchdowns in 2015 with eight.
- LB Marcus Albert (5-10, 207, R-JR) — He was tied for fourth on the team in tackles in 2015 (48).
- FS Zerius Lockhart (5-10, 175, JR) — Lockhart enters his third straight season as the Aggies starting free safety.

PRESEASON THIRD TEAM

- DE Malik Hampton-Prioleau (6-4, 255, SR) — He enters his third straight season as the Aggies starting defensive end.
- CB Tard McCoy (5-9, 184, R-JR) — Enters his first year as a starter.

A&T'S DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE

- N.C. A&T features one of the best defenses in the league. It has been that way since Rod Broadway became the head coach in 2011.
- Only one N.C. A&T defense under Broadway has failed to finish in the Top-10 nationally.
- The Aggies have shared the credit since 2011. N.C. A&T has never had one player dominate all the tackles and there has only been one player who has made more than 100 tackles in a season under Broadway and that was D'Vonte Grant who made 102 stops in 2013..
- The Aggies rush defense has been the key to their excellent defensive run over the past five seasons.
- A&T opponents are only average 2.9 yards per carry against the Aggies over the past five seasons.
- Only seven times in the Broadway era has a player rushed for more than 100 yards against the Aggies defense. Only three MEAC runners have ever rushed for more than 100 yards against N.C. A&T over the past five seasons.

JONES MAKES IT TO WATCH LIST

- North Carolina A&T senior placekicker Cody Jones is one of the 27 names listed.
- The Fred Mitchell Award is given to the nation's top kicker who is either on the FCS, Division II, Division III, NAIA or NJCAA levels. The Watch List is based on prior season results, current season expectations, media reports, information from collegiate sports information directors and coaches, commitment to community service and Selection Committee evaluation.
- The winner does not have to be on the preseason Watch List. The approximately 750 FCS, Division II, Division III, NAIA and NJCAA placekickers are eligible to receive the award in December, when the winner is announced.
- Jones is two field goals shy of breaking the school record for field goals made. He holds the record for extra points made. In 2014, he became the second kicker in school history to earn first-team All-MEAC honors.
- He has made 40 of 55 field goals (.727), which currently gives him the best career field goal percentage in school history. His success on 162 extra points out of 169 attempted (.959) is also tops among placekickers in program history.
- Last season he made 9 of 13 field goals (.692) including 7 of 8 (.875) from 30 yards or more. He was 44 of 46 (.957) in extra points. Prior to the 2016 season, Jones was named preseason first-team All-MEAC.

THE NEW AGGIES SECONDARY

- North Carolina A&T has almost has a brand new secondary. The Aggies returned only one starter from last season's HBCU National Championship team.
- Zerius Lockhart, who enters his third straight year as a starter at free safety, is the only returning starter for N.C. A&T
- Redshirt junior cornerback Tard McCoy and junior Jamaal Darden were part-time starters last season. Former walk-on Marquis Willis completes the new-look secondary.
- The new secondary has faired well. Willis has two interceptions on the season with seven defended passes thanks to his five breakups. McCoy has three breakups, while Lockhart has one..
- Backups Timadre Abrams and Lorenz Suttles have also done well. Abrams has an INT and Suttles had 10 stops vs. Hampton.

THE SUPER KEYES BROTHERS

- Denzel and Angelo Keyes have been major contributors for Aggie Athletics over the past three seasons.
- There is a Keyes on each side of the football for the Aggies. Denzel will be a four-year starter for the Aggies, while Angelo has been a star on the defensive side for the past two seasons.
- Combined the Keyes brothers have combined to score 22 touchdowns for N.C. A&T with Angelo scoring two defensive touchdowns in his career.
- Denzel has caught at least one pass in 18 straight games, also in 30 out of his last 31 games and in 33 of the 37 games he has played as an Aggie.
- Angelo leads the team in sacks with three and has 9.5 sacks in his career. Keyes has also batted down 14 passes in his career.

FIVE AGGIES EARN SPOT ON BCF WATCH LIST

- Five Aggies, Angelo Keyes, Brandon Parker, Khris Gardin, Marquis Ragland and running back Tarik Cohen earned a spot on The Black College Football Hall of Fame (BCFHOF) Football Player of the Year Award Watch List.
- It will be presented annually to the most outstanding football player from a Historically Black College & University (HBCU).
- The winner of the inaugural Black College Football Player of the Year Award will be announced on Feb. 25, 2017 at the Eighth Annual Black College Football Hall of Fame Ceremony in Atlanta, Ga., and will be honored with the Deacon Jones Trophy.
- The Watch List candidates have been selected based on past performance and future potential. The finalists and the winner will be chosen by a Selection Committee.

Rod Broadway enters his sixth season as the head football coach at North Carolina A&T. Broadway has spread success to various collegiate programs over the past 13 years as a head coach. He has five conference championships spread out over three different schools and conferences. He has won a Black College National Championship at each head coaching stop he has made including North Carolina Central (2006), Grambling State (2008) and North Carolina A&T State University (2015). His latest Black College National Championship and conference title came after the Aggies completed the 2015 season 10-2 overall, 7-1 in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and won the inaugural Air Force Reserve Celebration Bowl. Also during the 2015 season, he became the 26th active FCS coach to record 100 wins after a 27-3 triumph over Norfolk State on Oct. 10 earned him the milestone.

At the end of the 2015 season, Broadway was named American Urban Radio Network Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year. Running back Tarik Cohen was named AURN Doug Williams Offensive Player of the Year, marking the second time in Broadway's career he coached the black college football offensive player of the year.

The Aggies football program has made tremendous strides under Broadway's stewardship. A year before Broadway's arrival, the Aggies were 1-10. In his first season, they improved four games to 5-6. The next two seasons the Aggies put together consecutive 7-4 seasons. In his fourth season, the Aggies went 9-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC to capture a share of the MEAC title, the Aggies first title in 11 years. He is 46-20 (.697) over his six seasons as the Aggies head man. The 2015 MEAC title marked the first time the Aggies have won back-to-back conference titles since 1991, '92. Also, one of the school's biggest wins came under Broadway as the Aggies defeated three-time FCS national champion Appalachian State in Boone, N.C. It was the first time the Mountaineers had lost to an in-state opponent at home since 1984.

The four straight winning seasons are the programs first since posting winning seasons from 1998-01. Twenty-seven different players have earned All-MEAC honors under Broadway at N.C. A&T, including 11 players in 2014, the most in school history. There have been 18 first-team All-MEAC selections under Broadway and nine players have earned some type of All-American honor, which included center Ronald Canty earning Associated Press and American Football Coaches Association All-American recognition and punt returner Khris Gardin earning STATS FCS and Athletics Directors Association All-American honors. Cohen became a national figure and social media sensation during the 2015 offseason when he was showcased online catching a football, sometimes two, while coming out of a backflip. Cohen was also made an appearance on ESPN SportsCenter doing a backflip while catching a football.

On the field, Cohen is deemed one of the best running backs in the nation (FBS or FCS) and has been named the MEAC's rookie of the year and its co-offensive player of the year twice. Cohen has led the MEAC in rushing three straight seasons, and he is already the school's all-time leading rusher.

Broadway has turned the Aggies into a winner despite numerous obstacles he inherited when he arrived on campus in February of 2011. Broadway took over a program mired in NCAA sanctions stemming from a low graduation rate. As a result, Broadway took on the task of building a winner despite having reduced practice hours, fewer scholarships and little to no spring practice. Instead of making excuses, Broadway changed the football culture at A&T. He revitalized A&T's program with a stingy defense and a stringent focus on accountability on the football field and in the classroom.

One of his first initiatives was to make his players proud of the A&T legacy. Before each home game, they visit the statue (on campus) of four men and former A&T students (David Richmond, Franklin McCain, Joseph A. McNeil and Jibreel Khazan formerly known as Ezell Blair, Jr.) largely credited with ushering in the modern day civil rights movement with their famous Feb. 1, 1960 sit-in at a Greensboro F.W. Woolworth's lunch counter.

In addition, A&T's annual academic progress rate score, the score that measures progress toward degree, improved to 944 in single year 2011-12, releasing the Aggies from NCAA sanctions. The single-year score improved to 948 the following year and increased to 958 in 2013-14.

The foundation for the Aggies' resurgence on the field has been defense. In five years, the Aggies have never finished lower than 16th in total defense nationally. In two of those seasons, they were second nationally in total defense. The run defense has finished outside of the top-10 only once under Broadway and in 2013 the Aggies led the nation in run defense. In 2012, the Aggies ranked No. 1 nationally in pass defense efficiency.

The Aggies have not been bad on offense either under Broadway. In his first year, Broadway became the first Aggie head coach in school history to produce a 2,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver. In three of his years, he has had the MEAC Offensive Player of the Year. In 2011, Wallace Miles became the first player in school history to have a 1,000-yard receiving season. Mayhew, William Ray Robinson III, Nathan Isles, Ayodeji Olatoye, Desmond Lawrence, Miles and Tony McRae have all earned invites to NFL camps. Isles, Miles, Olatoye and McRae signed free agent contracts with NFL teams.

Miles still plays in the CFL and receiver Kevin Francis was selected in the CFL supplemental draft by Saskatchewan in 2015.

Broadway has compiled a 114-43 (.726) record over 13 years as a head coach. Before taking over the difficult task of rebuilding an Aggies program with just 14 wins in the previous seven seasons before his arrival, Broadway spent four seasons (2007-10) at Grambling State. The Tigers went 35-12 under his leadership. The year before he arrived at GSU, the Tigers went 3-8. During his first season there in 2008, the Tigers finished second in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and made an appearance in the SWAC Championship Game. Five players received either All-American or All-SWAC honors, and Broadway was a finalist for the nationally-recognized Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award. Year two led to even more improvements for the GSU program. The Tigers ascended to the top of the SWAC with a 9-0 record and a 41-9 win over Jackson State in the SWAC Championship Game. GSU's 2008 season also produced an 11-2 overall mark, a No. 24 national ranking in the Sports Network Division I-FCS poll and a Black College National Championship.

Defense was the catalyst for the Tigers' success as they finished the season ranked No. 1 nationally in turnover margin, pass efficiency defense and had a No. 7 ranking in rush defense. In addition, three players earned All-American honors, nine were named All-SWAC and five players earned Louisiana Sports Writers Association recognition. Accolades for Broadway included being named SWAC Coach of the Year and The Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C., Coach of the Year.

In 2009, GSU continued to play well. The Tigers finished 7-4 overall and 5-2 in the SWAC. The next season resulted in a 9-2 mark that was complemented by an 8-1 SWAC record. During his career at GSU, Broadway also showed he had a hankering for winning rivalry games. He went 3-1 against archrival Southern. He also owns the best winning percentage in program history, even better than legendary GSU head coach Eddie Robinson.

Before his stint at GSU, Broadway turned N.C. Central into a Division II national power. His four-year stint (2003-06) at N.C. Central produced a 33-11 record, back-to-back CIAA titles for the first time in 50 years and the Eagles made two consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. The 2006 season was the highlight of Broadway's tenure at NCCU. Broadway led the Eagles to an 11-1 season and the top seed in the NCAA Division II Southeast Region. After fielding the No. 1 rated offense in the CIAA and the 15th ranked defense nationally, individual honors included two players being named Associated Press Little All-Americans.

There were also 12 players named All-CIAA, 10 Eagles earned Daktronics All-Southeast Region recognition and four members from the 2006 team were named SBN All-Americans and quarterback Stadford Brown was named SBN Player of the Year. During his stint at NCCU, Broadway also put together a 16-game regular-season winning streak.

Broadway began his collegiate coaching career at East Carolina University in 1979. His other coaching positions included stays at Duke University (1981-94), the University of Florida (1995-00) and the University of North Carolina (2001-02). As an assistant at UNC, Broadway helped the Tar Heels to a No. 15 national ranking in total defense and an appearance in the Peach Bowl.

At Florida, he served as a member of the Steve Spurrier's staff. In 1996, he helped the Gators win an NCAA National Championship. Broadway's stay also included four SEC Championships and six bowl appearances. The Gators defense led the SEC in sacks four straight seasons (1996-99), and the team set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed, as offenses produced just 70.7 yards per game.

A 1977 graduate of UNC, Broadway played on the Tar Heels defensive line from 1974-77. He earned the team's Outstanding Freshman award in 1974 as he helped the Tar Heels earn a Sun Bowl berth. In 1977, he earned All-ACC honors along with the team's Most Outstanding Senior honor.

Broadway and his wife LaTonia live in Greensboro. They have three sons and six grandchildren.
